

OUR MISSION

The Mequon Police Department recognizes the interdependence and shared responsibilities of the police and the community in making Mequon a safe and desirable place to live and work.

Crime is a community problem that requires total commitment between the police and the community.

We are dedicated to the notion that there must be a partnership between the police and the community.

A Citizens' Police Academy is presented each year by the Mequon Police Department. Academy participants will receive an inside look into how police officers perform their duties.

The Mequon Police Department believes that education has been an effective tool in gaining understanding and support from our community.

Class Topics

- ◆ Criminal Investigations
- ◆ Defense and Arrest Tactics
- ◆ Use of Taser
- ◆ Operating while Intoxicated
- ◆ Mock Traffic Stops
- ◆ Drugs and Drug Recognition
- ◆ K-9 Demonstration
- ◆ Room Clearing with Simunitions

A large part of the Academy is participation in role playing and scenarios. These scenarios provide a hands-on learning experience.
