

Friends of Jonathan Clark House November 2019 Newsletter

We Bring History to Life
on the corner of Bonniwell and Cedarburg Roads in Mequon

Holiday Lights at the Jonathan Clark House Museum

Join fellow-community members as you step back to 1848

Tuesday, December 3, 2019, 5:00 – 7:00 (with music by Luke Edgewood)

Wednesday, December 4, 2019, 5:00 – 7:00

RSVP by Nov. 22 to jchmuseum@gmail.com and indicate which night you plan to attend and the names of those in your group. Thank you to our sponsors.

Save the Date for our Friends of Jonathan Clark House Annual Meeting
Tuesday, January 7, 2020 at Spectrum Investment Advisors

Friends gathered at Spectrum Investment Advisors for the January 2019 Annual Meeting

Heritage Days – Pumpkin Patch Festival Photo Gallery

Pumpkins, cookies, and outdoor fun

Your Year-End Donation Will Help our Volunteers “Bring History to Life”

Your mid-October JCH mail included our year-end fund drive letter and pledge card along with a photo gallery of 2019 highlights. Contact Diana Hetzel and Nina Look to discover other ways you can pledge your financial support. This unique historical home is entirely dependent upon the generosity of our members and donors for its ongoing operations, children’s and other events, and debt repayment.

Recent Business and Organization Donors to Jonathan Clark House

Spectrum Investment Advisors
 Richmond Investment Services
 Mid-State Insurance
 Optimist Club of Mequon Thiensville

Realty Executives Integrity - Alexis Ruzell
 Bank First
 American Country Farm Bed & Breakfast
 Port Washington State Bank

(Year-end fund drive donors will be listed in January)

Peter and Donna Steffen of the American Country Farm Bed & Breakfast donated a beautiful mid-19th century oil painting typical of what Mary and Jonathan would have had on their parlour wall. Be sure to look for it on your next museum visit.

Professional Painters at the Museum?

No, these semi-professional painters are members of the Mequon Thiensville Optimist Club who painted the house alcove. They will return in the spring to apply the second coat.

Thank You!

JOIN US
FOR AN OLD FASHIONED

Christmas with Santa

at the Jonathan Clark House

Saturday, December 7 • 3:00-4:30 PM
Bring your camera for pictures with Santa • Cookie Decorating • Tours
Jonathan Clark House Museum
Corner of Bonniwell & Cedarburg Roads, Mequon

SPONSORED BY:

BankFirst

Alexis Ruzell
Realty Executives Integrity

Jonathan Clark House and Mequon Thiensville Historical Society in the Spotlight

The Mequon Community Foundation not only supports JCH and MTHS financially, but also promotes the organizations on their website. Check out the video of their projects including Friends of Jonathan Clark House and Mequon Thiensville Historical Society. The photo below was taken during the taping at JCH.

Front row: Bob Blazich, President, MTHS and Nina Look, Executive Director, JCH
Back row: two film crew members, Randy Lorenz of Push to Start Productions, and Jim Button and Laurie Lorenz of MCF

You are invited to the Mequon Thiensville Historical Society Annual Meeting

The MTHS Annual Meeting and program will be held Sunday, November 17, 1:00, at the Mequon Nature Preserve. The program will be a presentation by local historian Allen Buchholz (pictured above) on Ozaukee County in World War II. The meeting is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

Our mission is to collect, preserve and share the history of the Jonathan Clark House and the early settlers of Mequon Thiensville

Newsletter and event photos from JCH Friend Jean Hill

Friends of Jonathan Clark House
P. O. Box 634, Mequon, WI 53092
www.jonathanclarkhouse.org
jchmuseum@gmail.com
262-618-2051

