Spring Election Takes Place on Tuesday, April 4

The Spring Election will be taking place next Tuesday, April 4, from 7:00 A.M. – 8:00 P.M. Find your polling place here and what's on the ballot at this link. Also, food barrels will be placed at the entrance of all polling sites in Mequon and will be accepting non-perishable food items and toiletries. Donations will benefit Family Sharing, Ozaukee Food Alliance and the Port Washington Food Pantry.

Please Be Aware that Utility Bill Color is Changing

Beginning with the Quarter 1, 2023 utility bill cycle, the cardstock color of the mailed invoices will change from blue to white. This is a fiscally responsible decision and will annually save the City approximately $800 between the two utilities.

CBS 58 Hometown Series Features Mequon

The CBS 58 Hometown Series featured the City of Mequon this week. Mike Strehlow visited Concordia University, the Mequon Nature Preserve, Barthel Fruit Farms, and the Mequon Public Market. In addition, the Morning News Team interviewed Mayor Nerbun. If you missed the news broadcast, it can be viewed here.

Ozaukee County Spring Prairie Plant Sale Through April 6

Establishing native prairies is essential for pollinators, beneficial insects, and bird populations. Whether community members are wanting a small garden or looking to convert a large area to no-mow, there are many options available through Ozaukee County's Spring Prairies Plant Sale. The sale closes on April 6, and plant pick-up will take place in mid-June. Order online at this link.

Copies Available at the Library

Many people need photocopies during tax time. Copies can be made at Frank L. Weyenberg Library. Color copies are just $0.40 per page, and black & white copies are half that at just $0.20 per page. The Library is open 7 days per week (closed Easter Sunday).
