

POLICE CHIEF

A Career Opportunity Awaits

APPLY NOW

The City of Mequon has an excellent opportunity for an experienced leader to fill the position of Chief of Police with the City's Police Department.

The salary range is $97,240 - $127,950 DOQ, plus a comprehensive benefits package.

The application review process will remain open until 4:00 p.m. on June 1, 2018.

Position Summary

The Chief of Police plans, directs and exercises general supervision over the work of the entire department. In addition, the Chief formulates and enforces department rules and regulations and work methods and procedures, as well as delegates duties to subordinate officers to accomplish the primary and auxiliary functions of the Police Department.

The Chief also supervises the enforcement of traffic and safety regulations and programs of crime prevention and detection. The Chief also advises and assists police officers in non-routine criminal and other investigations.

The Chief attends Common Council and other meetings as required, and also the Chief acts as liaison to the Public Safety Committee and Police and Fire Commission. Additionally, the Chief cooperates with other governmental agencies in solving cases.

In Mequon, the Chief attends civic club meetings, churches, schools, and other places of public gathering to explain the activities and functions of the Police Department and to establish favorable public relations.

Visit the City of Mequon's website at ci.mequon.wi.us/jobs to view a full job description, learn about qualifications, and attain an application.

